

To be Let, and Entered to Immediately,

ALL the PREMISES at Knowl-Lane, in MIRFIELD, heretofore occupied by the late Joshua Ingham, deceased, (except the newly-erected Mansion-House, now the Residence of his Widow) together with any Quantity of Land adjoining not exceeding Twenty Acres.

The Buildings to be Let comprise all the extensive WAREHOUSING and DRESSING-SHOPS in which the said Joshua Ingham and his Partners formerly carried on the Businesses of Cloth-Merchants and Woolstaplers, Part of which was occupied by the said Joshua Ingham and his Family, as a Dwelling-House, during the rebuilding of the House in which his Widow now resides, and may again be easily converted to the same Use; and rendered a very comfortable and roomy Habitation; the other Buildings consist of a large Barn, several excellent Stables, a Cow-house, Piggery, Cart-Sheds, &c.— For further Particulars apply to Mr. Taylor, Solicitor, Mirfield.
