

To Noblemen, Gentlemen, Gardeners & Others.

JAMES STEAD, impressed with Gratitude for past Favours conferred upon him, and being anxious to merit a continuance of their Commands, begs leave to inform them he is about Removing from his Nursery at Mirfield, and having a large Stock of FRUIT TREES, EVERGREENS and FLOWERING SHRUBS, Perennial and Bulbous Rooted FLOWERS, which in order to Dispense with them in a short time will be Sold on very low terms.

Ladies and Gentlemen wanting any of the above Articles, may meet with them to their Satisfaction.— Attendance every Monday and Thursday at the Nursery.

J. S. is removing to the Nursery at the Obelisk Grove, Cooper-Bridge.

Mirfield, near Huddersfield, 4th October, 1821.