

THE Friends and Customers of the late James Stead are respectfully informed that his Son, DANIEL STEAD, will continue to carry on his Business of a NURSEYMAN and SEEDSMAN, at Obelisk-Grove, for the Benefit of the Family of the Deceased, under the Inspection of his Executors, who trust that the Patronage which the Father so liberally experienced will be equally extended to and merited by the Son.

N.P. Wanted, a steady, active, experienced MAN, to assist in the Management of the said Nursery-Grounds. None need apply without a good Character from his last Place, and to such a One liberal Wages will be given.
