

BULL'S HEAD INN, MIRFIELD.—EDWIN FRANCE most respectfully returns his warmest Thanks to the Gentry, Merchants, and Public at large, for the kind and liberal Patronage he has experienced since his Entrance to the above Inn, and begs Leave to inform them, that he has newly fitted it up in a most superb, commodious and comfortable Manner, for the Accommodation of Gentlemen Travellers and others; and pledges himself that every Attention shall be paid to the Convenience and Comfort of those who may please to favour him with their future Patronage, and that Nothing shall be wanting on his Part to make it one of the first Houses on the Road.

Good Beds, Stabling, choice and fine flavoured Wines and prime excellent Spirits, &c. &c.

EDWIN and HENRY FRANCE also beg Leave to return their united Thanks to their Friends and the Public at large, for the kind Patronage they have experienced in the Plumbing, Glazing and Brazing Business, and assure them that every Exertion shall continue to be used to give Satisfaction to their various and numerous Employers, and hope, by such Means to meet their future Commands.

Gas Apparatus fitted up on the most improved Principles.

WANTED also, a single Man, as a Journeyman Brazier. One who has been accustomed to work in a Plumbers' Shop, will be preferred. A steady Man and a good Workman will meet with constant Employ and good Wages.

Mirfield, June 1st, 1825.
