SUDDEN DEATH.—On Wednesday last, an inquest was held at the Fountain Inn, Mirfield, before C. Jewison, Esq., coroner, on the body of John Sheard, an old man, aged 80 years. On the previous Monday the deceased was engaged reaping for B. Wilson, Esq., in a field near the Fountain Inn, and about twelve o'clock sat down to get his dinner. Two boys who were in the field observed the old man fall forwards, and on lifting him up found that he was dead. A verdict of "Died by the visitation of God" was returned.
