

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>

ANOTHER ROBBERY AT THE MIRFIELD RAILWAY STATION.—During the night of Monday last, the refreshment rooms at the Mirfield Railway Station, occupied by Mr. J. A. Rhodes, were broken into, and a considerable quantity of spirits, wine, cigars, and other articles were stolen. The thieves must have been in the place for some time, and, although there is a signal man on duty within a very short distance, he does not appear to have heard anything. This is the third robbery at the Mirfield Station within a month.

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>