

THE BAZAAR AT MIRFIELD.—On Wednesday night, a public tea meeting took place at Mirfield, under the auspices of the Methodist New Connexion there. The tea party was held in the Assembly room attached to the late Black Bull Inn, and after it was over a public meeting was held in the New Connexion Chapel, Eastthorpe-lane. Mr. Marmaduke Fox presided, and he was supported by the Revs. A. McCurdy, T. Gutteridge (Otley), T. D. Crowthers, E. McCarthy, J. Cameron (Independent, Hopton), T. Scowly, and Messrs. H. N. Yeoman, J. Silverwood, and G. H. Terry. The Rev. T. Scowby read a report, from which it appeared that the receipts on Monday and Tuesday at the bazaar amounted to the handsome sum of £300 2s., and he said he believed from what he knew of the sales of the day that the sum required for the payment of the debt upon the chapel (£350) was more than realised. (Applause.) The Rev. A. McCurdy and the other gentlemen named above, delivered interesting addresses, and the meeting adopted resolutions thanking the ladies for their efforts in promoting the success of the bazaar, to Mr. J. A. Rhodes for the loan of the Assembly room, to the speakers, and the choir. The meeting was brought to a close by Mr. Fox being thanked for presiding.
