

SHOCKING DEATH OF A CHILD AT MIRFIELD.—An inquest was held on Monday, at the Black Bull Inn, Mirfield, touching the death of a child aged two years, named Frank Lister, the son of a carter residing in Eastthorpe-lane in that township. The evidence showed that on Saturday, about noon, the child was in the kitchen, and it fell into a can of hot water which was placed on the floor. It was speedily extricated and placed under the care of a surgeon, but the injuries were so severe that death resulted in a few hours afterwards. The jury returned a verdict of ‘Accidental death.’
