

A CHILD RUN OVER AT MIRFIELD.—On the 26th of February last Geo. Ellis, servant to Mr. Joseph Ward, of Ossett, was driving a one horse waggon along the Dewsbury and Elland turnpike road at Battye-ford, when the horse knocked down a girl named Ann Fisher, who is the daughter of a working-man residing there. The horse trod upon her, she was run over by the waggon, her thigh was broken, and considerable injury was done to her head. She was taken home, where she lingered until Saturday at midnight, when death put an end to her sufferings.
