

SMALL-POX IN THE DEWSBURY DISTRICT.—

Yesterday, at a meeting of the Dewsbury Board of Guardians, a letter was read from Mr. Wade, surgeon, medical officer for Mirfield, stating that small-pox had broken out in Ravensthorpe. An inspector was appointed to visit the village, and report to the board. Ravensthorpe is a place of rising importance and increasing population, but the drainage is very defective.