

A BRUTAL SON.—George Watson, collier, Mirfield, was brought up on a warrant charged with assaulting his father, Wm. Watson. The complainant stated that on Monday his son came home intoxicated, and commenced to curse and swear. The prisoner gave him a black eye, and broke two of his ribs. The Bench committed the prisoner to the House of Correction for two months with hard labour.