

OUTRAGE AT MIRFIELD.—Last evening, Miss Jane Sheard, assistant schoolmistress at Whitley Lower Church School, but who resides with her parents at Hopton, was found lying by a path not far from her home by the Vicar (the Rev. Henry Bullivant), who happened to be passing at the time. She was unconscious, and on her head were three severe wounds. A man was seen to lift her up and then decamp. Up to last night he had not been discovered. It is believed that robbery was intended. Miss Sheard was still insensible at five o'clock last evening. The police are making an investigation.
