

A CHILD DROWNED AT MIRFIELD.—A sad accident occurred yesterday at Mirfield, a child, the son of Mr. Wm. Hebblethwaite, having been drowned in about nine inches of water. He was found in a tub in his grandfather's farm-yard quite dead, having apparently fallen in while at play.