

FATAL ACCIDENT TO A BRIGHOUSE GENTLEMAN.—On Tuesday evening Mr. William Sugden, of Stead House, Brighouse, who had been at Huddersfield, called at the Three Nuns, near Mirfield, to transact business with Mr. Joseph Lister, maltster. On leaving in his trap, Mr. Sugden was thrown out by the wheels jerking over the channelling in the yard, falling on his head. A messenger was immediately despatched to Brighouse, but before surgical aid could arrive Mr. Sugden expired. He was the third son of the late Mr. Thomas Sugden, and was well known to commercial men throughout the district. For many years he was a member of the Rastrick Local Board. He was twice married, and leaves a widow and several sons and daughters.
