

THE MIRFIELD ROBBERY.

ARREST ON SUSPICION.

A man who is suspected of having robbed Mr. Womack, of Mirfield, when about to leave the precincts of the railway station on Thursday night, and who it is said got away with the contents of a bag containing £700 in cash and cheques, was apprehended last night at Wakefield. His name is William Moseley.