

MIRFIELD.

Last night the annual distribution of prizes to the Mirfield detachment of the 2nd Volunteer Battalion (West Riding Regiment) took place at the Armoury Mirfield. Major Crowther presented a report, which showed the company to have been in a higher state of efficiency than it had ever been before. The prizes were presented by Mrs. J. E. Walker, of Mirfield. Sergeant-Instructor Perkins, who is leaving the company, after twelve years' service at Mirfield, was the recipient of an address and a diamond pin. Addresses were delivered by the Rev. H. W. How, Vicar of Mirfield; Major Hirst, of Huddersfield; and Lieutenant Crowther. A ball afterwards took place.
