

CONCERT AT MIRFIELD.—The Battyeford Amateur Musical Society provided a first-class concert in the Mirfield Town Hall last night, and according to their annual custom the proceeds were in aid of the Mirfield Nursing Association. There was a large audience. The first portion consisted of Cowen's Cantata, "The Rose Maiden," and the second was of a miscellaneous character. The principal vocalists were Miss Nellie Gosnell, soprano; Miss Emily Lloyd, contralto; Mr. Hamlyn Crimp, tenor; and Mr. D. Harrison, bass. The chorus sang their numbers with credit. Mr. J. E. Ibeson was the conductor and piano accompanist, and Mr. J. A. Dyson (Huddersfield) officiated at the organ.
